Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are encouraged to apply

Primary Objective: Plan and deliver specialist education services in a flexible learning environment with measurable and clear targets and monitor, evaluate and report on improvements in young person wellbeing and learning. Develop a deep professional relationship with disenfranchised young people for education outcomes, family support, and community engagement within a trauma informed framework. Work collaboratively with the FLC team to support the provision of culturally appropriate, accessible, quality education and engagement with community.

Context Statement: Youth+ is an initiative of Edmund Rice Education Australia. Youth+ services including Flexible Learning Centres (FLCs) which offer a full-time and multiyear secondary education and social inclusion program for young people who are disengaged/disenfranchised from mainstream education. See www.youthplusinstitute.edu.au - Publications for further information. The Ayr Outreach is a newly established (2019) program located within the Ayr community as part of the Townsville Flexible Learning Centre in response to a locally identified need for the provision of flexible learning options. The daily Outreach program will work with a group of 15 young people and will mostly occur in community locations. An additional staff member is being sought to join the current teacher/youth worker team.

Key Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Engage with and implement the principles and programs guided by the Youth+ relational pedagogy including the operation by principles (Respect, Honesty, Safe and Legal and Participation).
2. Plan, prepare and explicitly deliver quality and effective teaching and learning programs.
3. Provide for the physical, social, cultural and emotional well-being and safety of young people through the active development of supportive learning environments within a trauma informed framework.
4. Regularly assess with young people (diagnostic, formative and summative) for developmental, feedback and reporting purposes.
5. Establish and maintain appropriate interpersonal relationships between the school, families and community.
6. Build strong community and business relations to extend the possible opportunities for young people to engage positively with community and work.
7. Actively engage in continuous learning and skill development in the area of trauma informed, culturally aware, flexible learning practices.

Selection Criteria:

1. Understanding of working under four principles of operation: Respect, Participation, Safe and Legal, and Honesty (See Occasional Paper available on www.youthplusinstitute.edu.au for further information).
2. Well-developed interpersonal skills with a proven ability to work within a trauma informed environment.
3. Demonstrated knowledge of and experience in planning and delivering teaching and learning programs to meet the diverse needs and learning styles of disenfranchised young people; which are consistent with relevant curriculum policies, work programs and education trends in flexible learning centres.
4. Proven ability to work in a multi-disciplinary team and establish and maintain good working relationships and networks.
5. Registration with the Queensland College of Teachers.
